Movie: Unplanned

See the inspiring true story of one woman's journey of transformation: All Abby Johnson ever wanted to do was help women. As one of the youngest Planned Parenthood clinic directors in the nation, she was involved in more than 22,000 abortions and counseled countless women about their reproductive choices. But everything changed the day she helped with an abortion procedure, leading Abby to join her former enemies and become one of the most ardent pro-life speakers in America.
